What is the Cape Coral Police Department (CCPD)'s Holiday Toy Drive?

The CCPD's Holiday Toy Drive is an event where Officers of the Cape Coral Police Department partner with the staff, faculty, students, and parents of Oasis Elementary South and Oasis Middle School to collect new, unwrapped toy donations. The toys are given to a children's charity. This year's recipient is The Children's Network of SWFL.

Officers will join the faculty of Oasis Elementary South and Oasis Middle School during the morning parent drop-off car line and collect new, unwrapped toys and greet the students. This event is a fun way to have positive interaction between police officers and children, all while collecting toys for less fortunate kids during the holidays.

How can I get involved?

Send in a new, unwrapped toy with your child to school on Wednesday, December 6. Cape Coral Police Officers will be greeting students that morning in the parent drop-off car line to collect the donations.

What is The Children's Network of SWFL?

The Children's Network of SWFL is a private, nonprofit agency that administers the child welfare system in Lee, Collier, Charlotte, Hendry, and Glades Counties.
